1. General Information

National Institute of Design (NID) at Ahmedabad and at its Bengaluru and Gandhinagar Extension campuses is an 'Institute of National Importance' as per the NID Act 2014 as well as an autonomous Institute under the Department for Promotion of Industry and Internal Trade (DPIIT), Ministry of Commerce & Industry, Government of India. As per the NID Act 2014, the Institute is a statutory authority empowered to award its own degrees— presently offering Bachelor of Design (B.Des.) of four-year duration, Masters of Design (M.Des.) of two-and-a-half year duration and PhD in Design. The Institute is also a member of the Association of Indian Universities (AIU).

NID Andhra Pradesh, NID Haryana, NID Madhya Pradesh & NID Assam are independent autonomous institutes under the DPIIT, Ministry of Commerce & Industry, Government of India and offer full time Graduate Diploma Programme in Design (GDPD) of four-year duration.

Admission to all the programmes at NID is on the basis of the candidates' performance in the two-stages of Design Aptitude Test. The objective of these exams is to assess the knowledge, skills and behavioural abilities of candidates.

Stage 1: Design Aptitude Test (DAT) Prelims

Design Aptitude Test (DAT) Prelims will be conducted at various test centres across India (Refer Section 7.3 of this document). Candidates should note that appearing for the DAT Prelims or being shortlisted for second stage of admission process does NOT guarantee automatic entitlement to admission.

Stage 2: Design Aptitude Test (DAT) Mains

Candidates shortlisted after the DAT Prelims will be invited to appear for the Stage 2 DAT Main exam at Ahmedabad or at all campuses of NID viz Ahmedabad, Bengaluru, Gandhinagar, Haryana, Andhra Pradesh, Assam and Madhya Pradesh. Exact details of the Test Centre will be mentioned in the DAT Mains Admit Card.

Note:

- Candidates are fully and solely responsible to provide correct information during the application process. If it is found that any information provided by the candidate is not true, NID has the right to cancel, at any stage, the candidate's application or admission in accordance with its rules and regulations. Any direct or indirect attempt to influence the management and employees of the Institute will lead to automatic disqualification of the candidate.
- The Institute has the sole prerogative to determine the procedure for each cycle of admission. In case of any matter not covered in this handbook, NID's decisions shall be considered final and binding to all the parties concerned.

Note:

- Supernumerary seats under Overseas category are not available for GDPD programme at NID Andhra Pradesh, NID Haryana, NID Madhya Pradesh & NID Assam.
- Candidates under Overseas (supernumerary) category fall outside the ambit of seats reserved for the GEN-EWS, OBC-NCL, SC, ST and PwD categories and are required to pay the fees as per Overseas fees structure.
- Candidates holding OCI and PIO card will have to apply only under the Overseas (supernumerary) category.
- Non-Resident Indians (NRIs) holding an Indian passport are not eligible to apply under the Overseas (supernumerary) category and will have to apply as Indian nationals.
- Candidates will be offered admission to NID based on the final merit list of the Overseas (supernumerary) category, which will be prepared after all the stages of the admission process have been completed.
- To accept the offer of admission, overseas candidates are required to visit the NID campus in person, as per the schedule. At this time, candidates will be required to produce the following documents along with their self-attested photocopies:
 - Self-attested copy of the relevant pages of their valid passport.
 - Self-attested copies of their grade sheets/mark sheets of SSC (Grade X) and HSC (Grade XII). Candidates in the process of completing their Grade XII must submit a bonafide certificate from their school or college.
 - An equivalence certificate from the Association of Indian Universities (AIU), New Delhi, which have to be obtained in advance and required to be submitted at the time of document verification.
- The candidate will be responsible for obtaining a student visa for the entire duration of the programme at NID, before the commencement of the programme.
- If selected candidates do not pay their programme fees or fail to produce any of the required documents, or if they decline the offer of admission, their candidature will stand cancelled and their seat will be offered to the next candidate in order of merit under overseas category.

- Seats remaining vacant in the Overseas (supernumerary) category will lapse and will not be transferred to candidates from any other categories.
- Overseas candidates will have to appear for DAT Prelims and DAT Mains as per the schedule mentioned in Section 2 of this document.
- Overseas candidates may choose their test centre for DAT Prelims from any test centre mentioned in Section 7.3 of this document.
- The medium of instruction at NID is English.

Important Note:

- Candidates must have passed their Class XII examination (higher secondary (10+2)) or equivalent at the time of in-person counseling scheduled in June 2020.
- Candidates who have not passed their final board exam or equivalent before the in-person counseling will not be eligible for admission.

The B.Des./GDPD DAT prelims paper will consist of an examination of 3 hours duration and 100 marks. This is a paper-and-pencil/pen test, conducted at the same time on the same day across all test centers. The questions asked may involve text and visuals.

The question paper will be in English language ONLY.

Based on the DAT Prelims scores, separate merit lists shall be prepared for each category applied for by the candidate. Only shortlisted candidates will be eligible to appear for the DAT Mains exam as per the schedule announced.

Separate merit list will be prepared for Overseas candidates.

7.3 Test Centres for DAT Prelims:

The DAT Prelims will be conducted in the following cities in India:
Ahmedabad, Bengaluru, Bhopal, Bhubaneswar, Chandigarh, Chennai, Dehradun, Guwahati, Hyderabad, Jaipur, Kolkata, Kurukshetra, Lucknow, Mumbai, Nagpur, New Delhi, Patna, Raipur, Ranchi, Thiruvananthapuram and Vijayawada.

NID reserves the right to add or remove any test centre and allot a test centre that may not be of the candidate's choice. A city may have more than one test centre. Any request for change of test centre will not be entertained.

7.4 About DAT Mains for B.Des./GDPD:

Based on the scores obtained in the DAT Prelims, eligible candidates will be shortlisted for the DAT Mains. Admit Cards for shortlisted candidates will be available for download only on the official NID admissions website (<http://admissions.nid.edu>).

The DAT Mains will consist of tests in multiple formats such as in a studio set-up. The tests will be conducted over a maximum period of three days.

The total marks of the DAT Mains exam will be 100.

The question paper will be in English language ONLY.

The test centres could be any of the campuses of the various NIDs viz Ahmedabad, Bengaluru, Gandhinagar, Andhra Pradesh, Haryana, Madhya Pradesh & Assam. Exact details of the Test Centre will be mentioned in the DAT Mains Admit Card. NID reserves the right to change the test centre.

NID will not provide accommodation for candidates appearing for the DAT Mains; candidates must arrange travel/accommodation at their own cost.

7.5 Weightages of DAT Prelims & DAT Mains for Final Result

The final marks of the candidate appearing for the B.Des./GDPD programme of the National Institute of Design, will be calculated based on the weightages of the marks obtained in the DAT Prelims and DAT Mains as follows:

Programme/Test	DAT Prelims	DAT Mains
B.Des./GDPD	30%	70%

Note: Only candidates who have appeared for all the tests in both the stages will be considered eligible for the Merit List.

8. Announcement of Results

In order to be considered for the merit list, a candidate must have appeared for all the tests in both the DAT Prelims and the DAT Mains.

8.1 Results for DAT Prelims:

Based on the scores obtained in the DAT Prelims, separate merit lists shall be prepared for each category applied for by the candidate. Results for admission to NID for the Academic Year 2020-21 for the B.Des. (including overseas candidates) and GDPD programmes will be declared only on the official admissions website (<http://admissions.nid.edu>) as per the schedule announced in Section 2 of this document. The candidates' scores will also be available for viewing at this time.

Separate result score cards (digital or hard copy) will NOT be provided to the candidates.

In case the total marks scored by two or more candidates are the same, the following tie-break policy will be used for awarding ranks:

- (i) Higher rank will be assigned to the candidate who has obtained higher marks in Part B of the DAT - Prelims.
- (ii) If this does not break the tie, higher rank will be assigned to the candidate who has obtained higher marks in Part A of the DAT - Prelims.
- (iii) If this still does not break the tie, then both the candidates will be assigned the same rank.

8.2 Rechecking of DAT Prelims - Exam:

1. Requests for rechecking the answer booklet of the DAT Prelims - can be submitted ONLINE ONLY on the official website <http://admissions.nid.edu>
Rechecking will be restricted to—
 - (i) Whether all the answers have been marked.
 - (ii) Whether there has been any mistake in the totaling of marks for each question in Part II of answer booklet and transferring the marks correctly onto the cover page of the answer booklet.
2. No other re-evaluation of the answer script or other work done by the candidate as a part of the examination will be carried out.
3. No candidate, person or organization shall be entitled to claim re-evaluation or disclosure or inspection of the answer scripts or copies of it and other documents as these are treated as most confidential by the NID Admission Cell.
4. On rechecking the answer booklet, if it is found that there is an error, the marks will be revised accordingly.
5. The communication regarding the revision of marks, if any, shall be sent to the candidate's registered email ONLY.
6. The Institute will not be responsible for any loss or damage or any inconvenience caused to the candidate consequent to the revision of marks and no claims in this regard shall be entertained. The revised score after rechecking will be considered final.
7. Any rechecking requests submitted without a scanned copy of the Admit Card signed by the invigilator with the seal of the test centre will not be processed. Rechecking request will not be accepted over email and have to be submitted by the candidate online only at the official website of NID.

8. The details about “How to submit the rechecking request” will be available on the official website of admissions at a later stage.
9. The fees for rechecking of DAT Prelims paper is Rs.2000/- each.

8.3 Candidates Shortlisted for DAT Mains:

Based on the Merit list of DAT Prelims, eligible candidates will get to appear for DAT Mains. The number of candidates shortlisted will be no less than three times in each category applied for by the candidate. Please refer to Section 3 of this handbook to see the total number of seats available. If the total scores of two or more candidates in the DAT Prelims are the same after applying tie-break policy, they will be assigned the same rank.

8.4 Final Merit List:

The final common merit lists for the B.Des. and GDPD programmes will be generated category wise (Open, GEN-EWS, OBC-NCL, SC, ST, and PwD), based on the sum total of the weighted scores obtained by the candidate, viz. the DAT Prelims and DAT Mains. Separate merit list will be prepared for Overseas candidates for B.Des. programme.

Common merit list will be generated based on the percentile score.

Results for admission to NID for the academic year 2020-21 for B.Des. (including Overseas candidates) and GDPD will be declared ONLY on the official admissions website (<http://admissions.nid.edu>) as mentioned in Section 2 of this document.

The candidates' scores and ranks will be available for viewing on the website and candidates will have to log in to the site to view their final results. Separate result scorecards (digital or hard copy) will not be sent/provided to the candidates.

In case the total marks scored by two or more candidates are the same, the following tie-break policy will be used for awarding ranks:

- (i) Higher rank will be assigned to the candidate who has obtained higher marks in DAT Mains.
- (ii) If this does not break the tie, higher rank will be assigned to the candidate who has obtained higher marks in Stage 1 Design Aptitude Test.
- (iii) If this does not break the tie, higher rank will be assigned to the candidate who has obtained higher marks in Stage 1 Design Aptitude Test Part B.
- (iv) If this does not break the tie, higher rank will be assigned to the candidate who has obtained higher marks in Stage 1 Design Aptitude Test Part A.
- (v) If this does not break the tie, higher rank will be assigned to the candidate who has obtained higher marks in the question of DAT Mains exam which carries maximum marks.

The scores obtained during the application process in 2020-21 cycle are valid only for admission for the academic year 2020-21.

Scores obtained in NID's DAT exam cannot be used by any person/institution without prior permission of National Institute of Design.

Note: Obtaining a rank in the merit list does NOT guarantee admission to the programme of your choice.

8.5 Minimum Qualifying Criteria

Candidates from the various categories will be considered eligible for admission only if their score exceeds the minimum qualifying criteria (to be announced at a later date).

In the OBC-NCL category if seats are left unfilled due to no eligible candidates as per the minimum qualifying (which will be announced at a later date) criteria or unavailability of candidates, the seats will be de-reserved and will be allotted to candidates from the Open category. Seats remaining vacant under the GEN-EWS, SC and ST categories will NOT be allotted to candidates belonging to other categories.

It must be noted that the category chosen by a candidate at the time of submitting the application form will be considered as final, and requests for change of category will not be entertained.

* Amendments to the minimum qualifying criteria if any, will be updated on the official website <http://admissions.nid.edu> only in the Amendment Section of this Handbook.

8.6 Allotment of seat

The procedure of allotment of seats for the B.Des./GDPD programme will be conducted at Ahmedabad. Each candidate will be required to remain present in person with the requisite documents as per the schedule (which will be announced at a later date). Failing to report with the requisite documents as per the schedule will lead to forfeiting the candidate's seat and their seat will be allotted to the next eligible candidate in the order of merit in the respective category.
